

Mid Market Rent (MMR)

Mid-Market Rent (MMR) properties are a new type of tenure designed to meet the needs of working households on modest incomes. The properties, which are managed by the East End Housing Development Company, a subsidiary of Shettleston Housing Association, are built to a high standard of specification and incorporate energy efficiency features such as solar panels and triple glazing designed to minimize energy consumption.

Tenants will enter into a Short Assured Tenancy Agreement with East End Housing Development Company and will have access to a high quality repairs and maintenance service.

Mid Market Rent properties must be occupied as your only or principal home and applicants should normally be in employment.
